

Dr. Hines MABIKA

PhD (History of medicine)
MPA (Networks Management)
Université of Bern, Institute for the History of Medicine
Buehlstr. 26
Postfach
3000 Bern 9
Switzerland
hines.mabika@img.unibe.ch
hines.mabika@gmail.com
+41 31 631 84 51/73

Education

PhD in Social History of Medicine, University of Aix-en-Provence, France (2008)

Theme: Medicalisation of Central Africa. Gabon as a case study, 1890-1970: diagnosis, strategies and outcomes, 567p. (Supervisor: Prof. Colette Dubois).

Master in Public Health Administration, Option: Health and Social Networks Management, Cezanne University of Aix-Marseille III, France (2007).

Theme: Assessment of "Consultation Santé Jeunes", a health network for adolescents and young adults at Geneva University Hospital, Geneva, Switzerland. 120p. Supervisor Prof. Raymond Mallet, Aix-Marseille III, Dr. med. Françoise Narring, Geneva University Hospital, and Dr. med. Chandra Mouli, World Health Organization, Geneva.

Master Degree in African, Arabic, and Ottoman histories, University of Aix-en-Provence, 2002.

Theme: Hôpitaux et personnel medical au Gabon colonial, 1897-1957: Dynamique d'un investissement hospitalier? 120p.

Appointments

Spring 2016	Lecturer at the Historisches Institut der Universität Bern.
Spring/Summer 2015	Visiting Scholar and Associate Research at IUPUI Medical Humanities and Health Program, Indiana University, Indiana, USA http://liberalarts.iupui.edu/mhhs/research/
Since 2014	Senior Research Associate and Coordinator of SNSF-Funded Research Project at the Institute for the history of medicine, University of Bern, Switzerland. Theme: Medical Practice and International Networks. Albert Schweitzer's Hospital in Lambarene, 1913-1965.
2012-2013	First Assistant at Bern University Institute for the history of medicine
2011-2012	First Assistant at the University of Lausanne Theme: History of humanitarian medicine in Africa
Spring 2011	Visiting researcher at the Institut de Géographie, Université de Neuchâtel
2008-2011	Postdoctoral Fellow at the University of Basel Theme: History of health systems in Southern Africa in the 20 th

2003-2007	PhD Candidate
Spring/Summer 2007	Intern in Public network management at WHO Geneva and Geneva University hospital
Winter 2007	Short mission as UNFPA Geneva Consultant in Belgrad, Serbia Theme: Training for young managers in Public health networking management, Belgrad Polyclinic.
2003-2004	Benevolent Support person for pupils with learning difficulties, Social program of the Municipality of Aix-en-Provence (Bénévole chargé des élèves en difficulté scolaire, Programme municipal de la Mairie d'Aix-en-Provence)
2001	Admission into ‘Ecole Normale Supérieure’ of Libreville, Business School for the training of Secondary School Teachers.
Autumn 2001	Assistant Researcher within a UNICEF research project on Knowledge, attitudes and practices against Malaria in the City of Libreville.
1999-2005	Teacher at grammar school level in Libreville (Gabon) and Aix-en-Provence (France).

Domains of expertise

- Global studies (Networks and philanthropy in medicine and religion)
- African studies (Colonial and postcolonial history of medicine and health in Africa (French Gabon and British South Africa))
- Transnational history of Switzerland (Swiss mission medicine in South Africa)
- Medical practice, Knowledge transfer (medical thought, attitudes, and procedures versus routine and innovation)
- Medical and health agents (individuals, hospitals, laboratories)

Teaching

Spring 2016 Uni Bern Historische Institut, Bern	Albert Schweitzer hospital of Lambarene (1913-1965): a global perspective on hospital histories.
Spring 2012 Institut d'histoire Université de Neuchâtel	Historiographies coloniale et postcoloniale.
Autumn 2009 and 2010, Université Aix-Marseille II, Nord	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Introduction de la biomédecine en Afrique, - Financer la santé en Afrique: une histoire - Approche comparative des réseaux de santé en France et en Suisse